Title:- JIMMY FRESH WINNING A SQUAW. ✓

Description:-

Jimmy Fresh, young man-about-town, upon awakening one morning, receives a note from his attorney advising him that if he gets married before midnight of that same day, he will inherit the fortune of more than two million dollars which his late uncle, Hammond Eggs has left to him. Jimmy starts out at once, making love to the first girl he meets, a Bowery character. The girl's tough friend interferes, however, and in the ensuing fight, the tough is worsted. Jimmy converses with the girl once more, but soon becomes disgusted with her gum-chewing and mode of speech, and soon departs.

He next proposes to a pretty nurse-maid, but she calls an officer, who succeeds in being pushed into the park lake by the young man. Jimmy then tries to make himself agreeable to the girl, but she becomes angry and thrashes him thoroughly.

His next victim is a lady who is gazing into the window of a department store, but when Jimmy gets a view of her face, he does not linger.

He then visits a theatre, becomes enamoured with a dancer, and carries her off to a restaurant where he proceeds to buy a supper. The girl's manner of eating, however, soon causes him to leave.

Having given up the quest, he is about to ascend the steps of his home when he perceives another pretty girl approaching, secures ice-tongs from a nearby wagon, hooks her, and thus wins the fortune. A preacher is called on the ceremony performed just a few minutes before midnight.
